

PROJECT³

AV PROGRAMMING AND ENGINEERING

Employment Opportunity

Position: Junior Crestron Programmer

Position status: Full Time

Hours of Work: Monday to Friday, some evenings and weekends

Location: GTA but willing to travel further afield when necessary

Position Overview:

Reporting to Programming Director, will be adept at working in a collaborative team environment with site managers and customers. The Junior Programmer will have an intermediate level of Crestron programming and touchpanel design as well as good overall knowledge of audio visual product integration and system drawings.

Responsibilities:

Programming Crestron control system for residential and commercial applications. Work in a team environment with onsite managers, technicians and customers. Test, troubleshoot and debug programs/AV systems. or advise customer of suitable resolutions.

Requirements:

Crestron programming knowledge to intermediate level

Audio Visual knowledge to intermediate level

Excellent communications skills, both verbal and written

Good understanding of AV systems, drawings, racks, cabling and equipment

Troubleshooting skills

Team player but able to work independently

Ability to work to deadlines

Full driving licence as must be able to commute to site locations

Must be legally able to work in Canada

Applications submitted to:

hayley@project-3.com

Closing date 9th September 2011